

The Seattle office of Ogden Murphy Wallace, P.L.L.C., is seeking an associate attorney to join our Municipal law practice. The ideal candidate will have a minimum of two years of applicable experience, preferably with a municipal law firm or as in-house with a city, county, public utility or other governmental entity.

The firm emphasizes a team approach to the delivery of legal services and is seeking applicants with strong research and writing skills, superior academic credentials, and the ability to work closely with multiple attorneys and staff.

OMW is a multi-specialty firm that has been primarily serving Pacific Northwest clients for over 100 years. We take pride in providing exceptional legal services while creating a professional and friendly culture.

OMW is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our staff, vendors and clients.

Desired Skills include:

- Excellent research, writing and analytical skills
- Attention to detail
- Display of ownership
- Quick learner

Please submit your cover letter, resume and salary requirements to Joseph Drew, Human Resources Director at jdrew@omwlaw.com.