

The Kitsap County Prosecuting Attorney-Civil Division seeks to hire a WSBA licensed attorney to practice employment, labor, and general municipal law. The Civil Division serves as the legal advisor to county officials and their departments and represents the county in litigation. The successful candidate will serve as the primary legal advisor to the Kitsap County Sheriff in matters related to collective bargaining, discipline and discharge, wage and hour laws, family medical leave, civil service, and discrimination laws, and represent the County in grievance and interest arbitration, and employment litigation. In addition, the selected individual will advise County officers concerning public procurement, municipal contracts, and various laws affecting public agencies. Five years' experience in public sector labor and employment matters and/or advising in human resource matters is preferred. Salary range DOE $78,500 - $108,000, plus benefits. To apply, please submit a cover letter and resume to Jacquelyn Aufderheide, Civil Division Chief, at JAufderh@co.kitsap.wa.us.