Exactions Law: What We Know and the Fights Ahead

Time	1:30 – 2:15 PM	Location:	Pavilion AGD	CLE Credits:	0.75
Speakers	Roger Wynne, City of Seattle
Description	What if your city conditions a land use permit in a way that costs the developer money? Can they claim that the condition effects an “exaction” that doesn’t meet the nexus and rough proportionality requirements of Nollan and Dolan? This presentation will review the basics of exactions law, explore the contentious issues we still need to resolve, share tips for defending against exactions claims, and discuss how this constitutional law interacts with statutory limitations on local power to condition land use permits.

Intellectual Property Primer for Municipal Attorneys

Time	3:15 – 3:45 PM	Location:	Pavilion AGD	CLE Credits:	0.5
Speakers	Tricia Juettemeyer, City of Vancouver
Description	Land Use. Litigation. Procurement. Records. Training. You might be saying to yourself, this is what I do every day, intellectual property doesn't even enter the equation. You might be surprised to learn that IP appears in these and other municipal practice areas. In this whirlwind 30-minute presentation, you'll learn about the four types of intellectual property, how IP might appear in the work of the municipal lawyer, and tips on addressing this very interesting area of the law when it arises in your municipal practice.

Modern Franchising – Authority, Revenue, & Digital Equality

Time	3:45 – 4:15 PM	Location:	Pavilion AGD	CLE Credits:	0.5
Speakers	Mike Bradley, Lighthouse Law Group
Description	Consumer demand for cable service is declining, while demand for broadband is soaring. Cable franchising is still very relevant, but the future is in broadband. This presentation will show how cable franchises remain important contracts for local governments, discuss the impact of streaming video on these contracts, and review recent litigation and legislation. Then we will turn to the future of franchising, which is broadband franchising. We will discuss how modern broadband franchising could be used to best ensure equal access to broadband and protect the federal BEAD investments in the state.

This presentation will provide an overview of the Clean Buildings Act, its applicability, and the issues and opportunities germane to public entities that own or lease space. Attendees will leave with actionable recommendations and key resources for support and funding.

Municipalities in Court - Notes from the Bench and the Bar

Time	9:00 – 10:00 AM	Location:	Pavilion AGD	CLE Credits:	1.0
Speakers	Matt Segal, Pacifica Law Group
Description	Judge Matthew Segal (ret.) recently retired from serving on the King County Superior Court. Before his appointment to the court, he practiced municipal law for over 20 years (and was a frequent presenter at WSAMA). In this presentation, Matt will share observations about best practices for municipal entities that end up in court, with the perspective of both a litigant and a judge. What are the do's, the don't's, and the definite don't's? What should you do before a suit or claim is filed including to avoid litigation if possible? If you do end up in court, how do you get your story across to the court or a jury? What are the advantages and pitfalls of Zoom? Should you move for summary judgment, move to compel, settle, try the case? Should you affidavit a judge? How do you address other practical considerations such as scheduling, resource imbalances, and variable trial calendars?
