

WSAMA AMICUS PENDING CASES

PENDING

Updated December 1, 2021

CASE	WSAMA AUTHOR	ISSUE
1. Schwartz v. King County , No. 99359-9 (WA Supreme Ct)	Dan Lloyd (joint brief with WRPA)	Whether a three-foot bollard located on a park trail is an obvious condition, and therefore not latent, under RCW 4.24.210. Amicus Brief and Motion Filed: 8/16/21 (Accepted 8/24/21) OA: 9/30/2021
2. Norg v. City of Seattle , No. 100,100-2 (WA Supreme Ct)	Dan Lloyd	Whether justifiable reliance remains an essential element a plaintiff must prove in a lawsuit claiming delayed emergency response. PRV Filed: 8/18/21 Amicus Memo &amp; Motion Filed: 10/15/21 (Accepted 10/25/21) Continued to En Banc Calendar: 1/6/22
3. Potter v. City of Lacey , No. 21-35259 (9th Cir.)	Duncan Greene (joining IMLA & AWC Brief drafted by Gregory Wong of Pacifica)	Whether a $35 fine and possible impoundment for violation of a parking ordinance violates the Eighth Amendment or the Wash. Const., art 1, § 14. Amicus Brief Filed: 11/1/21 (all parties consented, FRAP 29(a)(2)) OA: TBD